Community Conference Explained

- Who are we?
- Where we get our referrals?
- What do we do?

- What's the goal?

“A non-profit community service program”

“From RCMP or Crown Counsel”

“Facilitate a community conference for you, the victim, and the community”

“Allow you to explain the details of the crime, the impact it has had on you and to ask questions and to have input into an agreement that helps make it right.”

Outline the Process

- Voluntary participation

- Barriers

- Who will be present
- Support person(s) for the offender:

“Both you and the victim are free to withdraw from the process at any time.”

“If you do withdraw, the case goes back to the RCMP for further action.”

“Do you have any physical or mental barriers that would prevent you from completing the process successfully?”

Phone N^o: _____

- Conference team role
 - not to judge
 - guide the process
 - provide a safe and respectful environment
 - be impartial
 - to provide support as you complete the resolution agreement
 - all information is confidential with two exceptions:
 1. A disclosure about the safety of a child,
 2. A disclosure of another criminal offence.

The team is required to report any such disclosure to the RCMP

The Process

1. An opportunity to tell your story
2. An opportunity to hear how your actions affected others
3. An opportunity to participate in a fair, reasonable agreement to repair the harm

- Mentorship Program
 - Hand out brochure
 - Inform them they will be expecting a phone call from the mentor before the conference to set up a meeting
 - Inform them you will be there to introduce them to their mentor at the first meeting

“ACJS provides a youth mentorship program called Support for Success to youth and their families who are referred to restorative justice”
“The role of the mentor is to help the youth and their families prepare for their community conference. Attend the community conference with the youth and their family, and assist the youth in the completion of their resolution agreement where needed”
“Meeting with your mentor during our process will help create the potential for economic opportunity and future community involvement by ensuring the community conference outcome is beneficial and meaningful to you”

Agreement to Participate

1. Explain the Agreement to Participate form
2. Have all necessary parties sign and date
